

Southwest Technical College's organizational chart is designed to promote effective operation of the college's educational programs and institutional services for students. Southwest Technical College is fortunate to have the administrative flexibility and governing board support that allows the institution to quickly adapt to the changing needs of students and the service region's business and industry. Southwest Technical College has an organized and effective instructional and administrative team focused on providing the highest quality technical education possible.