

0.B.2

The institution has not had its state license suspended, revoked, withdrawn, or terminated, even if the required due process procedures have not been completed within any state where it operates.

NOT APPLICABLE

Southwest Technical College is a public technical college in the Utah System of Higher Education. As such, it is not required to have a license to operate in the state.