Memorandum of Understanding between
Beaver County School District
and
Southwest Technical College
July 1, 2025 – June 30, 2026

I. PARTIES

This document will constitute an agreement between Beaver County School District (BCSD) and Southwest Technical College (Southwest Tech) for the provision of technical courses to Beaver County students.

II. PURPOSE

This Memorandum of Understanding authorizes Southwest Tech to offer courses to Beaver County secondary and post-secondary students in BCSD facilities as required to meet local needs. Except as noted, the courses offered will be part of or preparation for a certificate pathway.

This agreement will be reviewed as needed, but at least annually by the Superintendent of Schools for BCSD and the Southwest Tech President. Any significant changes should be decided by March 15th prior to the academic year or earlier as required to meet deadlines for budgetary and academic planning purposes.

III. EXPECTATIONS

Beaver County School District (BCSD) and Southwest Tech have agreed that Southwest Tech may utilize BCSD-owned facilities (listed below) at no cost to provide Career and Technical Education (CTE) training to secondary and post-secondary students in Beaver County. It is further agreed that:

1. Southwest Tech will coordinate program offerings through BCSD's CTE Director.
2. The CTE Director will coordinate facility use through the appropriate BCSD personnel and building administrators.
