In this modern culinary world the basic skills are of the utmost importance as well as a great attitude. The Culinary Arts program will focus on the development of fundamental cooking skills and techniques and will prepare students for working in a variety of industry settings including: Short order cooking, banquet and fine dining, menu planning, food costing, product ordering and receiving, product fabrication, product identification, and many more.

"We wanted to open a restaurant here in town. To do that I wanted everything to be as good as it can be and the best quality possible. So coming here was a good fit."

James Bowman
Culinary Arts Graduate
